

LONDON 2017 £5.00 $10

BRIDGE

FOR DESIGN

DECORATING WITH PICTURES

1. FRAMES

The wooden paneling of a snug informal living room is painted in black lacquer and every available inch of space on the paneled walls is taken up with the display of a wide-ranging collection of framed paintings and prints including Study For Self-Portrait by Michael Rainey.
Designer - Anne Coyle/Nate Berkus, Anita Sarsidi
Photograph - William Waldron

2. ABSTRACT

In a corner of this living room is a signed print by Pierre Dimitrienko that takes pride of place next to the fire-place, adding a splash of colour to the white painted wall.
Designer - Catherine Schmidt
Photograph - Frederic Vasseur

3. MONOCHROME

The walls of this black and white bathroom are lined with framed black and white photographs and prints to follow the monochromatic theme.
Designer - Hubert Zandberg
Photograph - Simon Upton